

SCOTT KUHNLY

ARTIST'S STATEMENT

"I trust everybody that buys art. People who buy art are more highly evolved and people who buy my art are like saints"

BIOGRAPHY

Scott Kuhnly was born in Long Island, New York in 1939, He began his studies with artist Millard Sheets at the age of 10, knowing even at that young age he wanted to be an Artist. From 1957 to 1964, Kuhnly majored in Art at California State University at Long Beach where he got his BFA and MFA.

Kuhnly has supported his family through sales of his art for over forty years by painting from his studio in Escondido, California for the last 31 years. He is proud to say, he has "never had to have a real job", but gets to do what he loves most (painting) daily at his studio.

Kuhnly being an avid surfer in his youth and a vintage car enthusiast produces many seascapes featuring fishing boats, sail boats, and harbor scenes. He also paints of vintage automobiles in rural settings, as well as many California plein-air landscapes. Kuhnly chooses watercolor and oil for preferred media.

COLLECTIONS:

The National Automotive and Truck Museum of the United States (NATMUS) Auburn, Indiana.

Columbia River Maritime Museum, Astoria, Oregon

Coos Art Museum, Coos Bay, Oregon

Kuhnly maintains a studio in Escondido, California where he continues to paint daily and occasionally exhibits at local art shows. In 2005 & 2006 he has joined us for a week of painting at our Santa Fe gallery in our Annual Artist in Residence Invitational. We have shown him in both galleries with great response ever since.
